What were the circumstances that caused you to initially look for a financial adviser?

With my wife passing in the previous year my children told me to release some cash from the house and do something that will get me out more. They did not want me languishing at home, rattling around on my own. So, I decided to raise some cash with a lifetime mortgage that will purchase a new touring caravan in the short term and a motorhome in the longer term. I'm now frequently found touring the U.K and next summer - France. It worked!!!!'ve joined groups and met with many new friends that enable me to do just as my family requested.

How has Neil helped you?

Neil was brilliant, he helped through the maze of different options that I could choose and explained in slow understandable language how each would benefit me. This is not an instant process where you just tick a few boxes but an in-depth process that covers all bases and ensures that the route to cash that you are taking is the correct one. Neil was very thorough and made sure that I ended up with the correct package to suit my needs.

Have you seen the outcome you were hoping for?

Yes, absolutely. Neil worked out figures based on my income and the value of my property. I am totally convinced that I have made the correct choice thanks to Neil's guidance.

What were the circumstances that caused you to initially look for a financial adviser?

I needed a 95% mortgage.

How has Neil helped you?

Neil found a mortgage for me. Neil made himself available whenever I had questions and was always very helpful. Neil also helped me find a solicitor which was appreciated. Neil essentially provided me with a one stop shop for securing advice, mortgage/insurance products and a solicitor. I don't think I could have asked for much more.

Self employed income protection

How has Neil helped you?

Just want to say a long overdue thank you to Neil Barsby at Asquith financial Services, one of the members on here. I'm due to have my first football match back tomorrow evening after months out after breaking my foot. I ended up having 5 weeks off work and being self employed it cost me a small fortune. I decided to take out income protection to cushion some of the blow financially if anything similar happened again. To say I'm lethargic in terms of getting things like this done is an understatement but this man went above and beyond in terms of organising me and my policy and getting things where they needed to be. I honestly can't see how the time he put in to me and my situation was worth the financial benefit to himself so although the term "professional" is coined a lot in terms of reviews that have been requested, it perfectly describes him and his business and this review wasn't requested at all.

Switch of jobs, aligning the best cover now we have a son. I wanted to make sure if anything happened he would be looked after

How has Neil helped you?

Fantastic, thorough service. I met with Neil and he went through all the various insurance options with the most comprehensive cover to suit my budget. He also looked into my other active policies to make sure I was covered correctly and not doubling up or paying out unnecessarily. He took the time to make sure I could access the best cover and truly believe this is one of the most important things. I have ever taken out to protect me and my family. I looked at Life Cover, Critical Illness cover and Income Protection. The meeting took me through all the questionnaires one on one with each section explained clearly. I was given time to read through all the information and options and all my many questions were answered. I have called Neil for advice on many occasions and each time met with such a high level of service and professionalism. He really goes out of his way to help. I have recently hurt my back and my income protection insurance is the best decision I have ever made and will help support me should I need to have treatment and a longer period off work than previously thought. Neil will be my go to when we come to remortgage in the next couple of years and I would highly recommend him to all my friends and family. Fantastic service.
